

New Student Orientation

January 12, 2009

Welcome!

Congratulations! We are confident you have made the right decision by selecting The University of North Dakota.

New Student Orientation is set for Monday, January 12, 2009 on the UND campus. The program is designed to help you make a successful transition to University life by making you feel at home at UND and providing you with the essential information every new student needs.

Course registration is only the beginning... with New Student Orientation, you're on your way to endless opportunities at The University of North Dakota! Students who participate throughout all the afternoon events will be eligible to win an iPod TOUCH!

Your Orientation Day

Check-In begins at 8:30 a.m. Monday, January 12, 2009 on the second floor of the Memorial Union. No advance registration is required. Your family is invited to participate!

New Student Orientation will:

- Provide you with vital information about classes, faculty and the campus.
- Give you an opportunity to meet other new UND students.
- Allow you to ask questions of current students.
- Help you learn where and how to study, how to get involved in campus life and where to meet people.
- Be fun! New Student Orientation gives new students an informal but informative introduction to college life.

Important Information on Placement Exams

From the information provided with your letter of admission, your advisor will let you know if you must take the language or math placement exams before classes start. As needed, please adjust your schedule to allow participation in one or both of these exams.

MATHEMATICS – 9:30 a.m. on January 12, in Witmer Hall Room 116. Please be there by 9:15 for check-in. Picture ID and pencil required. Advance registration required by Friday, January 9th. Call 701.777.2881 to register or for more information.

LANGUAGES – Language Placement Exams will be given regularly during the first two weeks of classes and by appointment throughout the rest of the semester. The Language Placement Exam Schedule can be found at: <http://www.und.edu/dept/language/undlab>. Please call 701.777.3813 or email language@und.nodak.edu for more information.
